(LIIId YEAR.) THE (No. 2662.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 1798.

FRANCFORT, October 26.

THE news of peace is ſpread through Germany with loud and general acclamations. It would be impoſſible to paint, in all its traits, the height of the public joy. Thoſe eſpecially who lived in the neighbourhood of the theatre of war, are regenerated with new hopes. Commerce and induſtry will reſtore to the body politic of Germany that vigour, of which an almoſt total ſtagnation had deprived it. Agriculture may hope to cauſe thoſe fields to flouriſh again, which the furies of Bellona have ſo long blaſted with ſterility. Can the belligerent powers, in laying down their arms, refrain from occupying themſelves in drying up the tears which the ſcourge of war has cauſed to flow? Can they, ſcarred all over with wounds, think again of reſuming their arms, to trouble, with their ſtrange and indecent quarrels, the tranquillity of Europe? Had the famous treaty of Pilnitz never-exiſted, a ſix years war would not have deſolated every part of our globe.

HALLE, (Germany) September 29.

General La Fayette, with his family and fellow-priſoners, now ſet at liberty, arrived here yeſterday from Coblentz.—Scarcely had the report of his arrival reached this place, before many of the profeſſors of the univerſity went to congratulate him, ſoon afterwards all the ſtudents followed this example, and paid their reſpects to him. A band of muſicians teſtified their joy at the deliverance of the eleve of Waſhington, by repeated acclamations. One of the moſt eloquent of the ſtudents addreſſed him, and expreſſed the ſentiments with which his virtues and long captivity had inſpired the univerſity. The hotel where he lodged was ſurrounded with an immenſe crowd till midnight. The next morning he proceeded on his rout to Hamburg, eſcorted by an Auſtrian officer.

PARIS, November 4.

COUNCIL OF FIVE HUNDRED.

November 3.

Malibran called the attention of the Council to the means taken to fulfil the promiſe of the government, made to the defenders of their country. He propoſed alſo to change the obſcure name of the Fauxbourg Saint Marceau to that of Fauxbourg d'Italie; and to erect a monument to the glory of that invincible army; and to grant to the pacificator of the continent BUONAPARTE, a penſion of 300,000 livres and a traitment militaire of 50,000 livres, one half reverſible to his wife.

Guillemardet replied, that the committee of finances has not loſt ſight of theſe objects; and Tallot obſerved, that the great ſoul of Buonaparte was above any pecuniary recommence. The order of the day, of conſequence, was adopted.

GLASGOW, November 9.

Paris papers of the 2d inſt. contain news of more than uſual importance. The Executive Directory have ordered an army to be forthwith aſſembled on the coaſt of the ocean, to be called and commanded by Buonaparte, for the avowed purpoſe of invading this country. They have alſo addreſſed a proclamation to the people, in which they call upon them to crown their exploits by an invaſion of that iſland, "whither their anceſtors carried ſlavery under William the conqueror, and carry thither the genius of liberty, which muſt land there at the ſame moment with themſelves." Reflecting on the hazardous conſequences of an enterprile of this nature, we cannot help conſidering the language of the Directory as an empty gaſconade. But, ſhould their intentions prove ſerious, we can ſee no cauſe for diſmay—no reaſon to dread the conſequences. On ſuch an occaſion, the manly energies of Britons, however they may differ on topics of leſſer moment, would be rouſed into action; and, united in defence of all that is dear to the heart of man, would not fail to return the attempt to the complete overthrow and deſtruction of the enemy.

THE ARMY OF ENGLAND,

"Let us be back'd with God, and with the ſeas
Which he has given for fence impregnable,
And with their helps alone defend ourſelves;
In them and in ourſelves our ſafety lies!"

The queen of Portugal having refuſed to ratify the treaty lately concluded with the French republic, it has been declared void; and an army of 30,000 men are about to march to Portugal, to compel her majeſty to accept whatever terms the French may chooſe to dictate.

LONDON, November 3.

The concourſe of people, yeſterday, to ſee his majeſty go to open the parliament, was the ſmalleſt ever remembered on any former ſimilar occaſion.

A circumſtance of a curious nature occurred yeſterday. The king's ſpeech was, as uſual, ordered to be ſent to his majeſty, but by ſome miſtake, it was not delivered. When the king was robing, the ſpeech was inquired for, but was not to be found. A copy was delivered to his majeſty, but not being plainly written, his majeſty could not read it. A meſſenger was then ſent to the ſecretary of ſtate's office for the original, where it was found, and immediately brought to the houſe of lords.

None of the leading members of oppoſition were preſent in the houſe of commons. The abſence of Mr. Fox, Mr. Sheridan, Mr. Gray, and ſome others, is to be accounted for by their previous declaration, that they felt their efforts and their attendance to be equally unavailing.

November 7.

The Dutch admiral Storey is ſaid to have been arreſted at the Hague.

The French and Venetian fleets have ſailed for Toulon. The Dutch admirals, on Saturday accompanied by earl Howe and lord Duncan, attended at the admiralty, and were introduced to earl Spencer.

On Saturday at one o'clock, admiral De Winter in company with his vice-admiral, and M. Vandyk, a Dutch merchant, paid a viſit to the bank of England, in order to view the different offices. Several of the directors, who were apprized of their intention, were at the bank for the purpoſe of attending them through the various departments. The multitude received them with unbounded plaudits wherever they went.

Rear-admiral Sir Horatio Nelſon is ſo far recovered from the loſs of his arm, that he will hoiſt his flag on board the firſt ſhip which is ready to receive him.

HALIFAX, December 21.

Tueſday morning, arrived the ſchooner Adventure, captain Poor, in 17 days from Burene, in Placentia bay, Newfoundland. Captain Poor informs us, that on the 22d November, arrived at Burene the brig Emulation, in 18 day from Liſbon. She brought news papers that contained accounts that Buonaparte had ſeparated himſelf from the French republic, and had eſtabliſhed a general republic in Italy, and put himſelf at the head of it; and that he had formed a cloſe alliance with the emperor, with whoſe advice and approbation he had eſtabliſhed himſelf in Italy. The emperor had again recommenced hoſtilities againſt the French. Beſides the deputies which were baniſhed from France, it was alſo ſaid, that about 70 of the Council of Five Hundred had been hanged, and that univerſal confuſion and anarchy prevailed in every part of France. This brig alſo brought an account of admiral Duncan's victory, and that moſt of the Dutch fleet had fallen into his hands. In conſequence of the intelligence brought by the brig Emulation, fiſh immediately roſe from 11 to 14 ſhillings per quintal, and the Emulation was immediately reloaded with a cargo of fiſh, and had ſailed for Liſbon.

BOSTON, January 2.

Extract of a letter from Salem, dated yeſterday.

"Captain Batchelder, arrived here on Saturday evening, in forty-nine days from Bourdeaux.

"Captain Phillips, paſſenger in the Rajah, ſaw a letter from Mr. Pinckney to the maſter of an American ſhip at Bourdeaux, deſiring a paſſage for himſelf and family, as he expected to leave the republic from neceſſity, in about 25 days. He aſſigned no reaſon for this expectation; and as a ſimilar application does not appear to have been made by the other gentlemen, perhaps he thinks it will be expedient for him to come home for freſh inſtructions. Mr. Deblois writes from Paris, that it is his private opinion war between France and America will probably take place in three months—certainly in ſix."

COMMISSION TO FRANCE.

A letter from Bourdeaux, dated the 7th of November, received via Salem, by Mr. Bradbury, of this town, ſtates, that the Americans there were alarmed by a letter which had come from Mr. Pinckney, inquiring for a veſſel bound to Charleſton, capable of accommodating himſelf and family with paſſages, and which could be ready to received them by the 20th of November, "for he did not know how ſoon he might be obliged to quit France." The writer adds, however, that the negotiation had not been commenced.

Several other letters with much the ſame intelligence, as reſpects Mr. Pinckney, we are informed have alſo been received.

We offer no comments of this extraordinary information. The fact ſeems pretty well aſcertained. Conjecture muſt ſpeculate on the cauſes for Mr. Pinckney's expected neceſſary ſudden departure from the Gallic republic.

NEW-YORK, January 8.

A moſt uncommon circumſtance occurred on Tueſday in the city road. A large dog, of the maſtiff breed, happened to paſs near a game cock, when the latter, without any provocation, aſſailed the dog with the utmoſt violence. The dog became irritated, and in his turn attacked the game cock. A ſevere combat enſued; but the vigilance and dexterity of the cock eluded every attempt of the dog to hurt him. At length the cock flew upon the dog's back, and with his beak actually beat out both his eyes. He then continued the attack with ſo much ferocity, that in a ſhort time the dog fell to the ground, when the cock ſtruck him a blow with his heel, which penetrated to his brains and he inſtantly expired. There were above 500 perſons witneſſes of this curious battle.—Fifty guineas were offered for the game cock and refuſed.—

Engliſh paper.

Thomas Muir to Thomas Paine.

"Cadiz, Auguſt 14, 1797.

"Since the memorable evening on which I took leave of you at ———, my melancholy and agitated life has been a continued ſeries of extraordinary events. I hope to meet you again in a few months.

"Contrary to every expectation, I am at laſt cured of my numerous wounds. The Directory have ſhewn me great kindneſs; their ſolicitude for an unfortunate being, who has been ſo cruelly oppreſſed, is a balm of conſolation which revives my drooping ſpirits. The Spaniards detain me as a priſoner, under the pretext that I am a Scotſman; but I have no doubt that the intervention of the Directory of the GREAT REPUBLIC will obtain my liberty. Remember me, moſt affectionately, to all my friends who are the friends of liberty and of mankind.

"THOMAS MUIR."

We are informed that Mr. Muir was ſet at liberty on the 16th September, in conſequence of the application of the Directory. Scots Chronicle.

Died at New-London, Mr. John Weeks, aged 114—he married his tenth wife when 106, ſhe was only 16! His gray hairs had fallen off, and was lately renewed by a dark head of hair; a new ſet of teeth had made their appearance—and, a few hours previous to his death, he eat three pounds of pork, two or three pounds of bread, and drank nearly a pint of wine. [This comes from a perſon of the above place, who knew the man.]

January 10.

Captain Clap, who arrived yeſterday from Jamaica, authoriſes us to ſay, that he ſaw there captain Wm. Story, commander of the brig Trio, of this port, and owned by Meſſrs. Yates and Pollock, who informed him that on his voyage from New-York to Jamaica, he had been attacked by a French privateer of 10 guns and full of men—that he had defended himſelf, and after an action of ſeveral glaſſes, the privateer ſtruck her colours—that he declined having any thing more to do with her, and proceeded on his voyage to Jamaica.

The Trio was armed with 6 four pounders, and manned with 15 men, beſides 4 paſſengers.

PHILADELPHIA, January 6.

Lateſt from the Natchez.

A gentleman who left the Natchez, on the 14th November, informs, that the poſts at that time were ſtill in the poſſeſſion of the Spaniards; and that no expectations were entertained of their being ſoon given up.

January 8.

One of our Paris papers has the following paragraphs:

Paris, October 24.

"The differences between our republic and the American ſtates are ſaid to be nearly terminated.

"At a moment when penury obliges the republic to renounce the ſupport of a maritime force, Buonaparte has taken upon himſelf the maintenance and ſupport of a ſquadron of 12 ſhips of the line, now in the Adriatic gulph, under the command of vice-admiral Brueys. He has already cloathed the crews, and completely proviſioned the ſquadron."

In the Britiſh houſe of lords, November 3, a vote of thanks to admiral lord Duncan, vice-admiral Onſlow, and the fleet under their command, paſſed nem. con.

In the houſe of commons Mr. Dundas moved, "that an humble addreſs be preſented to his majeſty, that he would be graciouſly pleaſed to give directions for a monument in the cathredal of St. Paul, to the memory of captain Burgeſs of the ſhip Ardent," Ordered.

CHARLESTON, December 22.

Extract of a letter from captain Samuel Hayward, commander of the ſhip Gadſden, of this port, dated on board the Gadſden, on the 22d of November laſt, then at ſea, in lat. 37.

"On the 10th inſtant, at midnight, I was brought to by the Britiſh frigate Thetis, near the Florida Reef. Captain Cochran ſent his boat on board, and ordered me with my papers on board the frigate.

"Though on examining them, all the property in the ſhip was found to be American, he ſent me on board with an officer and 17 men, and took out my mate and all the crew, except a boy, and ordered the ſhip for Halifax. My cargo is 1700 boxes of ſugar, all belonging to merchants in Charleſton, and eleven thouſand dollars in ſpecie, alſo belonging to gentlemen in that city. What reaſon there can be for taking the ſhip and ſending her to Halifax, I cannot tell. I ſhall uſe every means in my power to get her clear as ſoon as poſſible. This morning I fell in with the frigate again; captain Cochran ſent his boat on board and took out all the caſh. What his intention is I cannot ſurmiſe. I think if there is any law or juſtice remaining among the Britiſh, heavy damages will be recovered for this procedure. It appears that they are determined to take all the Americans from the Havanna. This is one of the bleſſed effects of Jay's treaty."

PETERSBURG, January 5.

On Friday morning laſt, at Richmond, an unfortunate ex-noble of France, urged by motives and actuated by feelings which, perhaps, were known only to himſelf, terminated his exiſtence by ſhooting himſelf.

The day following in Richmond, a Mr. Henry Anderſon, of that city, in a fit of intoxication, wantonly, and without any provocation, ſhot a poor negro in the ſtreet.

Sir Robert Liſton, his Britannic majeſty's miniſter to the United States, left Fayetteville the 25th ultimo, on his way to Charleſton.

BALTIMORE, January 15.

We are authoriſed to aſſert that the French republic refuſe to grant paſſports to any American citizens to go to Paris, except ſuch as have claims on the government.

N. D. Adv.

By a gentleman lately arrived from Nantes, we are authoriſed to ſtate, that he ſaw (a few days previous to his departure) a letter from the conſul-general at Paris, to the American conſul—literally as follows:

"The Directory yet continue an obſtinate ſilence—We hope our country may be kept out of actual war; but there is no idea of reparation. N. Y. Diary.

IMPORTANT!!!

Extract of a letter from a reſpectable gentleman at Norfolk, to his correſpondent in this city, dated January 5, 1798.

"We have an arrival from Glaſgow in thirty-ſix days, containing the following:—That the king of Spain has refuſed a paſſage through his dominions to the French troops deſtined to act againſt Portugal; that Buonaparte was collecting an army on the coaſt, to be called, "The Army of England;" And that the American commiſſioners had been ordered to leave France, not having powers to ſet aſide the treaty between Great-Britain and the United States, which was to precede any negotiation; the commiſſioners are ſaid to be on their return to America."

Extract of another letter from a gentleman in Richmond, to the ſame gentleman, who received the foregoing, dated January 9, '98.

"We have an arrival at Norfolk in 36 days from Glaſgow—She brings accounts of the American commiſſioners having been ordered out of Paris in 24 hours; they were aſked if they had powers to annul the Britiſh treaty, and form a connexion with France of a ſtrong tendency; ſaying they had no ſuch powers, they were ordered away."

In reſpect to the above intelligence we think it our duty to inform our readers, that we received, by Saturday's mail, a Norfolk paper of the 6th inſt. which contained not a ſingle article of any note that had not already been detailed to them, beſides thoſe in yeſterday's Gazette, under the Paris and London heads, received by the ſhip Alexander in a ſhort paſſage from Grenock.

WENT away on the 9th inst. from the subscriber, living in the city of Annapolis, a negro man named JEM, a lively, brisk, active fellow when he pleases, 28 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, slender made, rather a thin face, has a great hesitation in his speech, and when he laughs shews his gums very much, takes snuff, one of his legs is sore; he is very artful and can turn his hand to any thing; he has been used to waiting, to taking care of horses, and driving a carriage, is something of a gardiner, carpenter and bricklayer; is or pretends to be of the society of Methodists, he constantly attended the meetings, and at times exhorted himself; he took with him a watch of his own, a fine hat, new drab coloured surtout coat, lined about the body with green, light cloth waistcoat, buckskin breeches; a black coat lapelled is missing from the house; it is probable he may change his dress; he had some time in the summer from me a pass for a limitted time (three or four days) to go to Baltimore, it is not improbable but he may get the date altered and make use of it. Whoever takes him up and delivers him to me, or secures him in any gaol so that I get him again, shall receive TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

JOHN H. BAYARD,
THOMAS CRESAP,
HANSON BRISCOE. } Comm'rs Tax, Allegany cty.

Cumberland, Dec. 9, 1797.

THE ſubſcriber hereby gives notice, that he is appointed by the levy court of Anne-Arundel county to collect the aſſeſſment impoſed for the defraying the county charge in the following parts of the ſaid county, to wit: Annapolis, Middle Neck, South river, upper part of Road river, lower part of Road river, Lyon's creek, Weſt river, Herring creek, Lower Herring creek, and Severn hundreds; immediately after the 2nd of this month he will proceed to deliver to the inhabitants their reſpective accounts, and to demand payment of them. It is expected that the perſons indebted will be prepared, which will prevent diſagreeable conſequences, as the punctuality required of him by the law will not admit of his giving any indulgence.

GILBERT HAMILTON SMITH Collector.

Annapolis, January 1, 1798.

By his EXCELLENCY
JOHN HENRY,
GOVERNOR of MARYLAND,
A PROCLMATION.

WHEREAS it has been repreſented to me that a barn and ſtables, the property of Robert Laidler, of Charles county, were, on the night of the firſt inſtant, conſumed by fire, and that ſome malicious perſons are ſuppoſed to have wilfully ſet fire to the ſame; and whereas it is of the greateſt importance to ſociety that the perpetrator or perpetrators of ſuch a crime ſhould be diſcovered and brought to juſtice: I have, therefore, thought proper, by and in purſuance of the powers inveſted in me, to promiſe full and free pardon to any perſon being an accomplice in the commiſſion of the ſaid crime, who ſhall diſcover the perpetrator or perpetrators thereof, ſo that he, ſhe, or they, or any of them, be convicted thereof.

Given under my hand, and the ſeal of the State of Maryland, at the city of Annapolis, this thirteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven.

JOHN HENRY.

By the Governor,

GEORGE SMITH.

Calvert county, Lyon's creek, Dec. 2, 1797.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the ſubſcriber, living near Stafford court-houſe, in the commonwealth of Virginia, about the middle of May laſt, a negro fellow named JACK, about five feet eight or nine inches high, nineteen years old, thick made and well ſet, ſtoops in the ſhoulders, and his complexion black, has a remarkable ſcar on the top of one of his feet, but I forget whether right or leſt; he carried with him the following cloaths, a greeniſh coloured great coat of elaſtic cloth, with buff cuffs and cape, a white caſimer veſt and breeches, a brown cloth veſt, and a calico veſt, but theſe he may change for other cloaths; this negro lately belonged to the eſtate of Mr. THOMAS STONE, in Charles county, Maryland, and may paſs himſelf for one of the Thomas family of negroes belonging to the ſaid eſtate, who make pretenſion to their freedom, but the fallacy of the attempt may be eaſily detected, as he is quite black, whereas the Thomas family are all of the mulatto colour; he can alſo read a little. I ſuſpect he is lurking about Baltimore or Annapolis; his mother is in the former city, who is alſo a runaway, and named RACHEL. I will give the above reward of fifty dollars to any perſon who will deliver him to me at my place of reſidence, or FORTY DOLLARS for ſecuring him in any gaol, ſo that I get him again.

Six Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the ſubſcriber, about five miles above Montgomery county court-houſe, in the ſtate of Maryland, on the 16th day of December, a negro girl named JENNEY, about 17 or 18 years old, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, of a yellow complexion, with a ſcar on the back of her neck about an inch long, ſhe combs her hair and ties it in ſeveral places on her head, tolerable likely; ſhe had on when ſhe went away, one tow linen ſhift, one old green petticoat and jacket of kerſey, one country tow linen petticoat, one country ſtriped linſey jacket, one pair of coarſe white yarn ſtockings, one of the ſtockings feet about one half of gray yarn, one felt hat about half worn, and one pair of coarſe ſhoes; no doubt but ſhe will change her name and cloaths, and endeavour to paſs as free, as ſhe ran away laſt June and got into Calvert county, where ſhe formerly lived with Mr. James Stone, of Lower Marlborough. From the beſt information I can get ſhe went towards Snowden's iron-works. I will give the above reward to any perſon who will take her up, and ſecure her in any gaol ſo that I get her again, and reaſonable charges if brought home, paid by

W 3 JOHN RAWLINGS.

Harwood, December 18, 1797.

By virtue of a decree of the court of Chancery the ſubſcriber will SELL, at PUBLIC AUCTION, on Tueſday the 30th day of January, 1798, at 12 o'clock, A. M. on the premiſes,

A TRACT of LAND, called CHELSEA, lying in Prince-George's county, the property of Mr. HUMPHREY BELT; this tract contains by eſtimation eight hundred acres, but will probably on a ſurvey be found to contain more. A plot of the land will be prepared, and it will, if neceſſary, be divided into two or more tenements. This land is ſituated in the foreſt of Prince-George's county, near the Brick Church; it is diſtant about ſeven miles from Queen-Anne, five from Upper-Marlborough, and eleven from the city of Waſhington; it lies nearly in a ſquare, is extremely level, and the ſoil is of the firſt quality, well adapted for the cultivation of tobacco, Indian corn, and ſmall grain; there is a conſiderable quantity of meadow ground, and a ſufficiency of timber; the improvements are valuable, conſiſting of a comfortable dwelling-houſe, with out-houſes, and ſeveral tobacco-houſes, and other buildings, ſuitable for a plantation, and there are on one extremity of the land a ſmaller dwelling, with out-houſes. A more particular deſcription is not deemed neceſſary, as thoſe who are inclined to purchaſe this valuable eſtate, or any part of it, will have an opportunity of viewing it before the ſale. The terms of ſale are as follow: The purchaſer or purchaſers of the whole or any part of the land ſhall pay down the purchaſe money at the time of the ſale, or immediately after the ratification thereof by the chancellor; and on the ratification of the ſale by the chancellor, and on the payment of the purchaſe money, the right, title, intereſt and eſtate of the ſaid Humphrey Belt, and of the mortgagees, will be conveyed as directed by the decree.
